Miss Me – But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little – but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me – but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Masters' plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the hills we know
And bury your sorrows among the trees
Miss me-but let me go.

The Team

All my life with even tugs, They've leaned into the collar.
You always picked up the lines and spoke.
You never whipped or hollered.
You treated them with due respect
They gave it back tenfold.
It seems the tougher that things got the harder the team pulled.
I've seen them bust through chest high drifts and pull high water too.
And if you care to watch for them
They teach some things to you.
I've seen them inches off the ground
And swayed to get one started.
And I have been responsible for some
Heavy loads they carted.
For 50 years they've been side by side
They never left the other.
And please God, take an open hand-
My Father and My Mother.
