

Grandma's Hands
by Bill Withers
adapted by Alexandra Begley

Grandma's hands
Brewed some coffee on Sunday morning
Grandma's hands
Held everyone so well
Grandma's hands
Used to issue out a warning
She'd say, Honey don't you run so fast
Might fall on a piece of glass
Might be snakes there in that grass
Grandma's hands

Grandma's hands
Sewed little baby blankets
Grandma's hands
Used to ache sometimes and swell
Grandma's hands
Used to lift my face and tell me
She'd say, Baby, grandma understands
That you really have no plan
Put yourself in Grandma's hands
Grandma's hands

Grandma's hands
Used to hand me piece of candy
Grandma's hands
Picked me up each time I fell
Grandma's hands
Boy, they really came in handy
She'd say, Sonny don't you whip that boy
What you want to spank him for?
He didn't drop no apple core
But I don't have grandma anymore
If I get to heaven I'll look for
Grandma's hands
